Consolidated Business Results for This Period

Overview of Results

(Billions of yen)

	FY2024/1-3Q	FY2023/1-3Q	Change	Change (%)
Net sales	583.1	621.7	(38.5)	(6.2)
Operating profit	45.2	38.6	6.6	17.2
Equity in earnings of affiliates	7.3	1.4	5.8	412.9
Ordinary profit	53.8	43.4	10.4	24.1
Profit attributable to owners of parent	35.6	40.0	(4.4)	(11.1)

During the first nine months (April 1, 2024 – December 31, 2024) of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025, inflationary pressure began to slowly moderate, while financial and capital market conditions, such as foreign exchange rates, remained highly volatile due to the impact of the U.S. presidential election results, shifts in monetary policies undertaken in such major countries as the United States and Europe, and other factors. Furthermore, the global economy has been affected by the ongoing stagnation of the Chinese economy, the prolongation of conflicts in the Middle East and the Russia-Ukraine War, and post-election changes in U.S. government policies. In addition, concerns have arisen regarding the possible decoupling of economies worldwide on the back of geopolitical risk. These and other uncertainties, in turn, made it challenging to formulate the immediate economic outlook.

Against this backdrop, the Mitsubishi Gas Chemical (MGC) Group has identified a new target of “Strengthening the resiliency of our business portfolio” under a medium-term management plan which was launched in the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025. To this end, the Group has been pushing ahead with various measures, such as “Focusing on Uniqueness & Presence,” “Building new value through innovation” and “Restructuring businesses requiring intensive management.” Thus, the Group has been thoroughly implementing business portfolio reforms that are directly aimed at improving capital efficiency.

The Group’s net sales decreased due mainly to the December 2023 transition of JSP Corporation from consolidated subsidiary to equity-method affiliate, despite the depreciation of the yen, growth in sales volumes of such products as optical polymers for smartphone use, and other positive factors.

On the other hand, operating profit increased, despite such negative factors as the aforementioned transition of JSP Corporation to equity-method affiliate. This increase was mainly attributable to overall growth in earnings from the Specialty Chemicals business segment compared with the same period of the previous fiscal year, in addition to the depreciation of the yen.

Furthermore, ordinary profit rose due to the increase in operating profit as well as higher methanol market prices and other positive factors leading to improvement in equity in earnings of affiliates.

However, profit attributable to owners of parent decreased due primarily to the absence of gain on step acquisitions recorded in the same period of the previous fiscal year in connection with the inclusion of Mitsubishi Engineering Plastics Corporation into the scope of consolidation.

Taking the above factors into account, the MGC Group’s consolidated operating results were as presented above.

Results by Business Segment

Operating results by segment are as described below.

Please note that reportable segment operations previously classified as “Basic Chemicals” were renamed “Green Energy & Chemicals” in the first nine months of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025.

In addition, net sales presented for each reportable segment in the subsequent section, “Results by Business Segment,” previously comprised only revenues from external customers. However, from the beginning of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025, the Company revised the method of presentation in this section to include both revenues from external customers and transactions with other segments in net sales for each such segment. Moreover, segment net sales for the first nine months of the previous fiscal year have been presented by retrospectively applying the above change.

Green Energy & Chemicals

The methanol business saw increases in both net sales and earnings due primarily to higher market prices compared with the same period of the previous fiscal year.

Methanol and ammonia-based chemicals posted earnings on par with the same period of the previous fiscal year on the back of the recovery trend in the sales volume of MMA products, despite higher repair costs and other negative factors.

The energy resources and environmental business saw increases in net sales and earnings due primarily to the higher sales volume of LNG for power generation use, along with growth in the sales volume of iodine and rising market prices for this offering.

Meta-xylenediamine and aromatic aldehydes posted an increase in net sales, but recorded a decrease in earnings, reflecting such factors as the lower sales volume of derivatives for China-bound exports and higher fixed costs, despite a recovery trend in demand for products targeting European and U.S. customers.

Xylene separators and derivatives posted increases in both net sales and earnings, despite stagnant market prices for purified isophthalic acid, thanks to the depreciation of the yen and other positive factors.

Specialty Chemicals

Inorganic chemicals, which include those for use in semiconductor manufacturing, posted increases in both net sales and earnings, reflecting growth in the sales volume of hybrid chemicals and other products for use in the manufacture of highly functional memory devices.

Engineering plastics saw increases in both net sales and earnings due to higher sales volumes of such offerings as products related to office automation equipment, in addition to improvement in manufacturing costs, and other factors.

Optical materials posted increases in both net sales and earnings on the back of the higher sales volume of optical polymers that reflected a trend toward increasing the sophistication of smartphone camera functions, growing demand for products targeting emerging nations, and other factors.

Electronics materials saw increases in net sales and earnings, due to robust sales of BT materials for smartphone-related IC plastic packaging, the core product category for electronics materials, and growth in the sales volume of OPE™ a substrate material for AI servers.

Oxygen absorbers such as AGELESS™ posted increases in net sales and earnings due to improvement in export prices on the back of the depreciation of the yen, and the higher sales volume of products for overseas customers.
